VISITOR GUIDE

LYNCHBURGVIRGINIA.ORG | @LYNCHBURGVA

LYH WELCOMES YOU

Welcome to LYH, a quintessential Virginia city with a leafy veneer, a powerful industrial heart and a history that dates from John Lynch's first ferry crossing of the James River in 1757. In our culturally-rich neighborhoods and picturesque, strollable city, you'll discover a destination with a vital sense of its past and a growing contemporary energy. Today, LYH is counted among the nation's best small cities, Best Places for Millennials—we have six colleges and universities—and Best Small Places for Business and Careers. Plus, we know that it's the very best for visitors as well.

Take the time to explore our 40 miles of urban trails and riverfront downtown, as well as galleries and places of historical importance. In the Hill City, you'll also want to take in views of the James River, wander through historic neighborhoods, taste our local flavor, and much more.

Wherever you go, whatever you do, LYH loves you!

LYNCHBURG'S TOP 10

Whether you're looking for the profoundly historic or the completely contemporary, the serious or playful, active or delicious, LYH has a must-see spot for you. Our Love sign is an Instagram icon, Amazement Square will fascinate the curious of every age, and our museums are places of teaching and sharing. On the waters of the James River or strolling downtown, exploring historic districts or picturesque gardens, LYH is an unforgettable experience.

BLACKWATER CREEK TRAIL, JAMES RIVER & PERCIVAL'S ISLAND

1600 Concord Turnpike | lynchburgparksandrec.com

Weaving throughout the City, the trails of Blackwater Creek incorporate several sections of earthen and paved trails perfect for biking, walking, running and hiking. Make sure you grab a pic at our famous LOVE sign at the entrance of Percival's Island where you can catch stunning views of the James River.

AMAZEMENT SQUARE

27 9th St. | amazementsquare.org

This nationally recognized children's museum offers four floors of hands-on interactive exhibits designed to make learning fun for all ages. Paint on the walls, float a boat down the James River, rock out in your own rock band or enjoy the mazes of slides, ladders and tunnels. Anything is possible here.

LYNCHBURG MUSEUM

901 Court St. | lynchburgmuseum.org

Start your visit at the Lynchburg Museum where visitors can explore the rich history of Central Virginia, enjoy rotating exhibits, and speak with our knowledgeable Visitor Services staff to help plan your trip in LYH. You won't forget this true Virginian experience.

DOWNTOWN, THE HILL CITY

downtownlynchburg.com

LYH is known as the Hill City—and the walk up is the best free exercise you can get. Rising more than 200 feet from Jefferson to Court St., there are several spots—including the Bluffwalk and Monument Terrace—to catch your breath for views of the Blue Ridge Mountains and the James River.

SEAQUEST AT RIVER RIDGE

Have a land & sea adventure right here in LYH. The entire family will enjoy this exciting journey around the planet while interacting, meeting, and feeding animals from five continents.

OLD CITY CEMETERY

401 Taylor St. | gravegarden.org

Explore this 27-acre "history park" filled with hundreds of varieties of native and heirloom plants, including the largest public collection of antique roses in the state. Five small museums tell the stories of the diverse population of nearly 20,000 buried here. You won't want to miss the annual Antique Rose Festival in May and fall Candlelight Tours.

PIERCE STREET RENAISSANCE HISTORIC DISTRICT

1313 Peirce St. | annespencermuseum.com

This historic district in LYH was home to notable African American Civil Rights influencers, including Anne Spencer, Harlem Renaissance poet; her son Chauncey Spencer, an aviation pioneer; and Dr. R. Walter Johnson, first black physician granted practice rights at Lynchburg General Hospital and tennis instructor to both Arthur Ashe and Althea Gibson. Find respite in the garden at 1313 Peirce St., Anne Spencer's retreat and source of inspiration for much of her poetry.

The James River

Old City Cemetery

THOMAS JEFFERSON'S POPLAR FOREST

1542 Bateman Bridge Rd. | poplarforest.org

Just to the west of the City of Lynchburg, Thomas Jefferson's Poplar Forest offers a unique and memorable experience for those interested in history, architecture and landscapes. Jefferson chose this site for his private retreat and visitors can learn more about his family and the free and enslaved craftspeople who built this architectural masterpiece.

MAIER MUSEUM OF ART AT RANDOLPH COLLEGE

1 Quinlan St. | maiermuseum.org

One of LYH's best kept secrets, the Maier Museum of Art at Randolph College is home to an exceptional collection of 19th and 20th century American art. In 1951, the National Gallery of Art selected the campus as the site of a confidential storage facility in the event of a national emergency. The college agreed to keep silent about the project, dubbed "Project Y." The Maier Museum of Art also hosts an annual Exhibition of Contemporary Art, the longest-running exhibition of its kind on an academic campus in the country.

LYNCHBURG COMMUNITY MARKET

1219 Main St.

MEET JEFF GRAY, OWNER OF SCENE3 SKATEBOARD AND BICYCLE SHOP

Jeff Gray is the owner of Scene3, a skateboard and bike shop located in Downtown Lynchburg. He lives in Lynchburg with his wife and two kids and has been skateboarding and riding bikes since middle school. You can often spot him riding to work with his dog Rocket, a Wire Fox Terrier, riding in a crate on the front of his bike.

FAVORITE LOCAL HIKE?

My favorite hike is Devil's Marbleyard. It has a great view, and there are plenty of rocks to climb on at the top. It's also less than an hour drive from LYH so you can finish your day downtown.

BEST PLACE ON TWO WHEELS?

Favorite bike trail is Peaks View Park. There are miles of single track trails right in the heart of town. They recently built a new section with flow trails that has jumps and berms. Second favorite trail is Candler's Mountain. The trails are more advanced, and they have some epic downhill runs. Be prepared for lots of climbing!

BEST PLACE TO SHOP FOR OUTDOOR GEAR?

The best place in town for outdoor gear is Outdoor Trails. They have everything you need for hiking, camping, or anything outdoor related. They have also been in business more than twenty years, and are super knowledgeable on the gear they sell.

BEST WAY TO ENJOY A WEEKEND OUTDOORS?

I work in retail so my weekends are split between running my shop on Saturday and adventures with family on Sunday. Most of our adventures are short day trips to the mountains, or packing up the bikes and riding the local mountain bike trails.

LYH HISTORY

MEET CANDACE VINSON, EXECUTIVE CHEF FOR THE WATER DOG

With a degree from Johnson & Wales University - North Miami, Candace has worked independently as a Private Chef and for Walt Disney World, Colonial Williamsburg, and local restaurants Woodruff's Pie Shop and Isabella's Trattoria. "The Water Dog is a unique concept with owners dedicated to supporting the community. I'm looking forward to creating and shucking up some cool dishes for our customers."

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE PLACE TO GRAB A QUICK BITE?

When I get a chance, I love supporting local food trucks! Tacos Locos on Fort Ave is one of my faves as well as Wandering Donut.

BEST SPOT FOR A COFFEE OR BREAKFAST?

The Lynchburg Community Market is the best place for both a coffee and a pastry! You can grab a freshly brewed cup of joe from Grains of Sense Coffee Roasters and a delicious sticky bun from Father's Cafe and Bakery.

WHAT IS YOUR GO-TO PLACE FOR A DATE NIGHT?

Dinner at Grey's on Fifth St. and a show at the Academy Center of the Arts.

BEST KID-FRIENDLY PLACE TO EAT IN LYH?

The Water Dog! We have a cool kids menu and are located right beside a splash park! Did I mention that MayLynn's Creamery is our next door neighbor? Winning!

BEST SPOT TO SIT OUTSIDE?

The Farm Basket! The outdoor space is beautiful, the sandwiches are perfectly curated, and you can catch some cool foodie finds! I love a good all-in-one!

LYH TOASTS YOU

A city is only as good as its craftspeople, and LYH is worth the trip. In our range of regional tasting rooms you can explore for days our very personal interpretations of flavors from seasonal brews to IPAs, lagers to stouts. Brewmasters are dedicated to their work, and only too happy to share what they've learned along the way. Take a tour, test drive a flight of brews and toast another great day in LYH!

MEET ROBBIE O'CAIN, STARR HILL BREWMASTER

Starr Hill Brewmaster Robbie O'Cain opened Starr Hill on Main in 2020. The tap room features an eclectic atmosphere and several beers on tap that change throughout the season. When he is not brewing beer, Robbie enjoys spending time outdoors hiking, fly fishing, and tying his own flies.

BEST COCKTAIL IN LYH?

My favorite place to grab a cocktail is Isabella's Italian Trattoria. They have a great bar featuring several craft cocktails and an amazing wine list. Josh Evans, longtime bartender at Isabella's, is always coming up with a new concoction... and it's always delicious.

BEST ATMOSPHERE TO GRAB A DRINK?

Rivermont Pizza is the best laid back atmosphere to grab a late night drink. They have an awesome bar with many beers on tap, and a beer cellar in the back where you can get craft brews to-go. When you get hungry, grab one of their unique wood-fired pizzas.

BEST PLACE TO GRAB A BEER?

Other than Starr Hill on Main of course, 3 Roads Brewing just up the street is located in a renovated car garage and has an awesome vibe and outside patio.

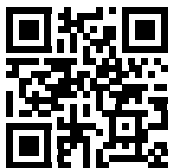

BEST PLACE TO WINE & DINE?

The Glass House is a great venue on Jefferson St. where they offer live music and Rosé Thursdays with a food menu that changes each week. You can also stop by Reserve Tasting Room & Lounge right next door for a great selection of Virginia wines and charcuterie boards.

LYH DELIGHTS YOU

One of the best parts about visiting any city is exploring local shops and markets and discovering the shopkeepers who are passionate about their eclectic businesses. LYH is an ideal place to hone your shopping skills: downtown offers blocks of open doorways and warm welcomes, along with coffee, furniture, fashion, food and well-chosen pieces that are going to look great in your home. Popular major brands can also be found in easily-accessible shopping centers in the region.

MEET HEATHER HARRIS, FOUNDER OF MEANWHILE BACK ON THE FARM

With accessory design, furniture manufacturing, and retail experience, Heather and her husband Bobby launched Meanwhile Back On The Farm, a leather bag and accessory company featuring hand sewn products from the finest organic materials. Stop by their shop on Old Forest Rd. to see the bags being handsewn or shop their online store.

BEST PLACE FOR GIFTS?

My go-to is the Boonsboro Shopping Center, with several shops to choose from in one spot. Shop for gifts at Paisley Gifts & Stationery, home furnishings at Renovative Home, or men's clothing at R. Coffee Ltd. We like to finish our excursion with some BBQ at Pok-E-Joe's or ice cream from MayLynn's Creamery, with locations in Boonsboro or Downtown.

WHAT IS A MADE-IN-LYNCHBURG PRODUCT THAT EVERYONE NEEDS TO KNOW ABOUT?

One of my favorites to share with friends is Scratch Pasta, homemade pasta made by Stephanie Fees right here in LYH. The pasta makes for an excellent gift or meal to share and comes with a variety of options like tomato basil, garlic fusilli, squid ink campanelle, and even gluten free. You can find Scratch Pasta online, at the Lynchburg Community Market, or the Farm Basket.

SHOPPING DAY FOR YOURSELF IN LYH, WHERE DO YOU GO?

River Ridge Mall offers a great selection of stores all under one roof from big names to locally-owned and operated shops. I can find great deals at TJ Maxx or small, local stores like Alpaca by Jaca, a natural fibers boutique. The kids love it too with SeaQuest and Bounce About. I also love Empire Fleet Vintage and Live Trendy or Die for unique finds.

TRAILS AND TOURS

HISTORIC DISTRICTS WALKING TOUR

Available online or at LYH Visitor Services
lynchburgvirginia.org

By foot or by car, Lynchburg's seven historic districts are a must see. These "hilltop" neighborhoods reflect LYH's affluence and influence in the 19th and 20th centuries. From grand revival style mansions to fascinating stories of former residents, our historic districts offer a unique experience of architecture and social history.

DOWNTOWN ARCHITECTURAL WALKING TOUR

Available online or at LYH Visitor Services
lynchburgvirginia.org

The steady growth and prosperity of LYH since its founding fueled the construction of extraordinary buildings in a diverse array of architectural styles, from Neoclassical to Beaux Arts to Modernist. Look for the Hill City's best example of Art Deco architecture, the Allied Arts Building, clad in local greenstone on Church St. Tour covers Main and Church St. from 5th to 13th.

HISTORIC MARKERS DRIVING AND WALKING TOUR

Available online or at LYH Visitor Services
lynchburgvirginia.org

LYH is home to an unusually large number of Virginia historical highway markers, detailing the stories of nearly 70 people and places that have made a significant contribution to the Commonwealth or the country.

PUBLIC ART WALKING TOUR

lynchburgvirginia.org/tourlyhpublicart

Creative minds have made their mark on LYH. The City of Lynchburg, which includes the James River Arts & Cultural District, has been a muse for many because of its history, architectural beauty and revitalization. Wander off the beaten path a bit and discover the sculptures and murals dotted around the city.

MEET SHAUN SPENCER-HESTER, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND CURATOR OF THE ANNE SPENCER HOUSE & GARDEN MUSEUM

Shaun is the executive director and curator of the Anne Spencer House and Garden Museum. She is the granddaughter of Anne Spencer, Harlem Renaissance poet and Civil Rights activist, and the driving force behind the historical site.

FAVORITE LOCAL HISTORY EXPERIENCE TO SHARE WITH FAMILY & FRIENDS?

I cannot ask for a better experience than when I'm piddling around the Museum & Garden and visitors stop by. We engage in conversation that may lead to an impromptu tour of Edankraal or Pierce St. During our conversation or tour I humbly reveal my kinship and pride of the relationships with those before us who created a "Black Mecca of Greatness" in Lynchburg, from the post reconstruction era through the civil rights movement.

WHAT IS SOMETHING PEOPLE DON'T KNOW ABOUT LYH?

I strongly believe that people need to know the full history of the City. Like most, if not all, American cities, much of it was built by slave labor. We need to tell more stories about how their labor led to today's urban revitalization.

FAVORITE HISTORY VISIT THAT IS WALKABLE?

I love the Old City Cemetery and, of course, the Anne Spencer Garden. Both are open to the public from dawn to dusk year-round, whether you're interested in history or flora or just want a quiet moment to reflect.

A performance by Opera on the James. I had only seen opera on TV and it was crazy to see a professional show in my hometown.

WHAT IS THE MOST INTERESTING GALLERY TO VISIT?

Riverviews Artspace because they have more than one gallery and many hallways and studios with a focus on emerging artists. You never know what you may see there!

NAME A PUBLIC ART PIECE IN LYH THAT YOU MUST SEE.

Check out the Midtown Outdoor Art Gallery, it's free! Plus don't forget to go see my mural "Make Waves" [at 1208 Thurman Ave].

WHAT IS A FUN, FAMILY-FRIENDLY EXPERIENCE?

My daughter and I like hiking on the Blackwater Creek Trail or in Peaks View or Riverside Parks. On the weekends, I can be found driving the mountains with the family [and lots of tasty treats packed in the car!] Also love to visit the sloth, toucan and stingrays at SeaQuest in River Ridge Mall.

COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES

Home to regionally and nationally ranked colleges and universities, LYH has been named among the top college towns in the U.S. and the No. 1 Place for Millennials. Our higher education institutions grant more than 20,000 degrees annually.

UNIVERSITY OF LYNCHBURG

1501 Lakeside Dr. | lynchburg.edu

Founded in 1903, the University of Lynchburg today is a comprehensive university with nearly 3,000 students spread across 40 buildings. U.S. News & World Report, The Princeton Review, and Colleges of Distinction have all recognized the University of Lynchburg as one of the best private institutions in the nation. The university encourages worldly experiences with nearly a third of students completing study abroad programs. The University of Lynchburg offers undergraduate and graduate degrees as well as three doctorate programs and an array of professional certifications.

RANDOLPH COLLEGE

2500 Rivermont Ave. | randolphcollege.edu

Randolph College may only have 700 students, but it makes a big impact. U.S. News & World Report has ranked Randolph College among the nation's top liberal arts colleges, and The Princeton Review ranked it the ninth most green college in America. Randolph College is consistently written up in the prestigious Fiske Guide to Colleges for its academic programs, small class sizes, picturesque campus and diverse, close-knit community. Founded in 1891 as Randolph-Macon Woman's College, the school changed its name in 2007 and welcomed its first coed class.

LIBERTY UNIVERSITY

1971 University Blvd. | liberty.edu

Liberty University, founded in 1971, today attracts students from all 50 states and more than 80 countries with its 700 programs of study, including undergraduate, graduate and doctoral degrees. While 15,000 students are on campus, another 95,000 attend online, making Liberty University Virginia's largest college and the fifth largest in the nation. The city's largest employer, Liberty University staffs 8,000 local residents. Liberty is also home to NCAA Division 1 athletics and a strong community service program — students volunteer 500,000 hours annually. In the most recent economic impact study, local spending associated with the university totaled more than $500 million.

VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY OF LYNCHBURG

2058 Garfield Ave. | vul.edu

With around 300 students, Virginia University of Lynchburg is one of America's Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU). The city's oldest college has roots dating back to the 1886 session of the Virginia Baptist State Convention. Just 21 years after the Emancipation Proclamation, African American church leaders founded the school to educate the Black community and prepare them for paid jobs in careers of their choice. A 2014 report of the state's HBCUs revealed Virginia University of Lynchburg generates $10 million in total economic impact for its local and regional economies.

CENTRAL VIRGINIA COMMUNITY COLLEGE

3506 Wards Rd. | centralvirginia.edu

Central Virginia Community College ensures its graduates master the latest skills and technology so they can enter the workforce with expertise and innovation. Around 3,500 students are enrolled in more than 50 academic and career training programs, ranging from business and health care to engineering, manufacturing and IT. Students can obtain an associate's degree in a variety of programs, as well as certificates for their chosen industry.

SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE

134 Chapel Rd. | sbc.edu

Sweet Briar College's campus in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains is more than just a beautiful place. Its 2,840 acres of farmlands and vineyards, forest and wetlands, meadows and historic buildings are a learning lab that helps students write their own future.

CENTRA COLLEGE OF NURSING

905 Lakeside Dr. | Centracollege.edu

Established in 1912, Centra College of Nursing is committed to providing excellent care to patients through the development of professional nurses. The college offers nursing certification programs like Registered Nurses, Associate Nursing, Practical Nursing, and Nurse Aids.

MEET SEIYA NOMURA, UNIVERSITY OF LYNCHBURG STUDENT

Seiya Nomura completed his undergraduate degree in Communications at the University of Lynchburg and is currently working on a Masters in Educational Leadership. Seiya works in the University's Office of Multicultural Services as well as with Interfaith Outreach Association in Downtown Lynchburg. When he's not studying, Seiya enjoys walking on the Blackwater Creek Trail, going to Rise Up Climbing or bowling at AMF Lanes.

FAVORITE OFF-CAMPUS HANGOUT?

To me, the best off-campus hangout is Jo Jo Pizza on Lakeside Dr. They have great food and drink for a college-budget-friendly price and they do various activities throughout the week, like karaoke and live music!

WHERE DO YOU TAKE YOUR PARENTS FOR DINNER?

When my family or my girlfriend's family come to town, we usually go downtown to eat because of the diverse selection of quality restaurants like My Dog Duke's Diner, Bootleggers, Depot Grille, Benny Scarpetta's, and The Water Dog.

BEST BUDGET-FRIENDLY EXPERIENCE?

When it's been a week since payday and you're on a budget, I think the best experience in LYH is the Community Market on Saturday mornings. There are local farmers selling produce, small food establishments, like Phillippine Delight, that won't hurt your budget, and local crafts, artisan teas, wines, honey, jewelry and more that you can enjoy while on a budget!

ENTERTAINMENT & SPORTS
